Financial Report. Accounting Contractor Charlie Veeneman presented the financial report for July and August.

Legal Update. Attorney David Spenard reported that one property owner has complied with the right-of-way closure. He will draft and send a letter to the second property owner explaining the steps required to complete the closure. Mayor Green has contacted Ken Lampe as requested and will forward his email to Mr. Spenard. Mr. Spenard is awaiting the council's direction on resident meetings and publication of the proposed nuisance ordinances. The council will review the nuisance ordinance at the next meeting, and Commissioner Wilson agreed to review it again before then.

Flock Cameras. Commissioner Bird reported that the Flock cameras cost approximately $12,000 per year, or $36,000 over three years, and have been used only two or three times in that period. Mayor Green shared resident feedback, which raised privacy concerns and favored spending the money elsewhere. The council agreed not to renew the contract when it expires in November. Mr. Spenard advised that because the cameras are not statutorily required, the contract may be allowed to expire without a special meeting or vote. Commissioner Bird will confirm the renewal date and the process for non-renewal and notify the council. Mayor Green will contact a resident whose husband owns a security company to discuss alternative security options and invite him to a future meeting.

October Meeting. The council agreed to skip the October meeting due to fall break scheduling conflicts. The next meeting will be held in November.

Paving and Investments. Mayor Green expressed that the need for a firm paving schedule and financial plan is ongoing, pending further details from Mr. Veeneman. Commissioner White confirmed she has shared price-per-square-foot quotes from three paving companies. Commissioner Wilson will use those quotes as a starting point to draft a paving schedule and financial plan. Mayor Green noted that city funds currently earn 4% interest at Commonwealth and suggested that the money be put into an investment plan; Commissioner Wilson agreed to research this as a side committee project.

Trees and Landscaping. Mayor Green reported progress on the Trees Louisville allocation; most trees will likely be distributed to residents. The council discussed landscaping improvements, including adding arborvitae for privacy and appearance at the neighborhood entrance, and reviewed dead or overgrown trees that need removal or trimming. Commissioner Beaulieu will follow up with Larry Nalley for a cost to replace the dead arborvitae in the landscape island.

Lime Kiln Annexation. The council discussed the possible annexation of the streets across Lime Kiln into the city. Mayor Green will attempt to find the person who reached out and follow up with them. Commissioner Beaulieu offered to help evaluate the financial benefits of bringing additional properties into the city.

Resident Directory. Mayor Green reported that some residents have not submitted complete directory information, such as children's ages or occupations, and the council discussed whether to include occupations in the newsletter. Mayor Green and Clerk Schmitt will meet to discuss the directory and go through the storage unit before the November meeting.

Minutes. Mayor Green will distribute the minutes of the August and September meetings for approval at the November meeting.
